

Customer Churn Analysis

Service Type

All

Tech Support

All

Home

Churn Rate

Segments

Total Customers
7043

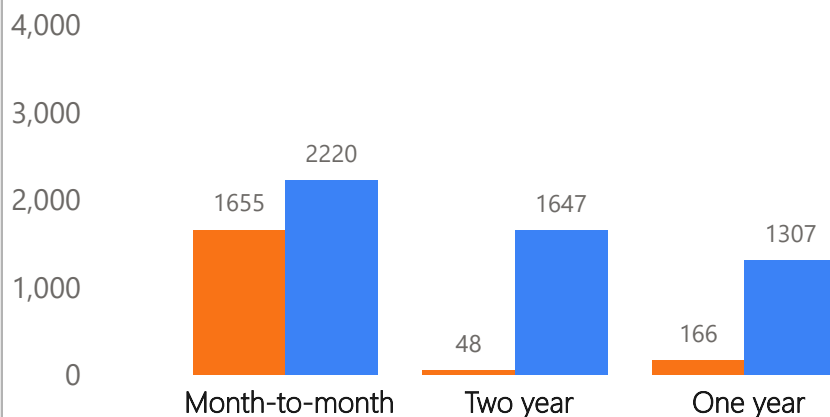

Churned
1869

Retained
5174

Churn Rate
26.54%

Churn by Contract Type

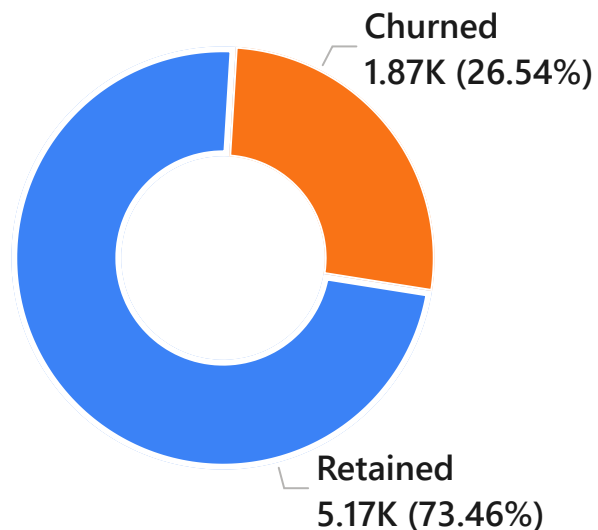

● Churned ● Retained

Insight

- Nearly 40% of the 'month-to-month' contract customer leave the company.
- Customers with 'Two year' plan have least churn rate followed by 'One year' plan, which is obvious.

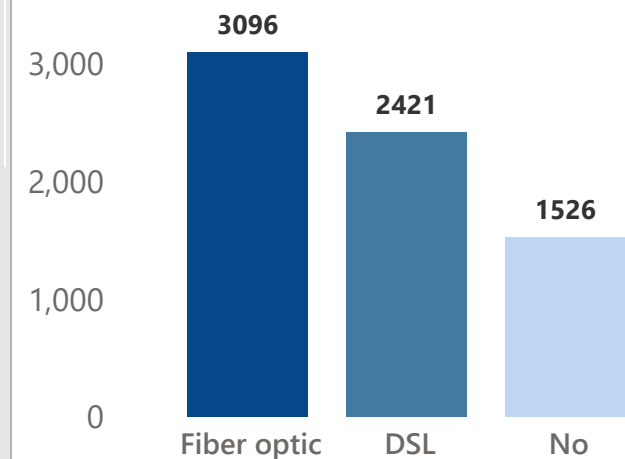

Customer % by Churn

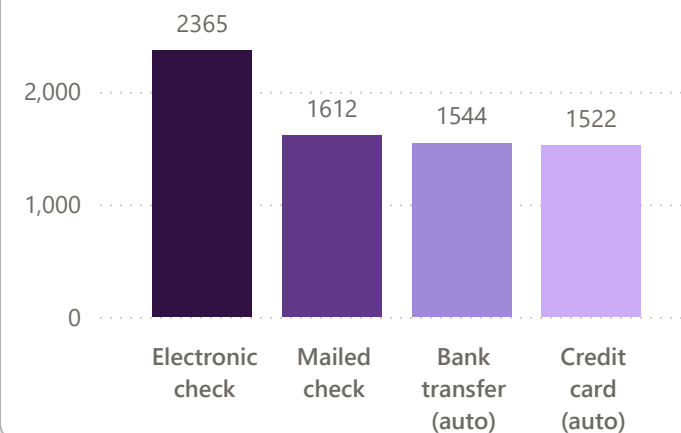

Insight

- The Overall churn rate is 26.5%, which is very high.
- The company is losing 1 in every 4 customer

Customer Distribution by Internet Service

Customer Distribution by Payment Method

Churn Rate Analysis

Home

Churn Rate

Segments

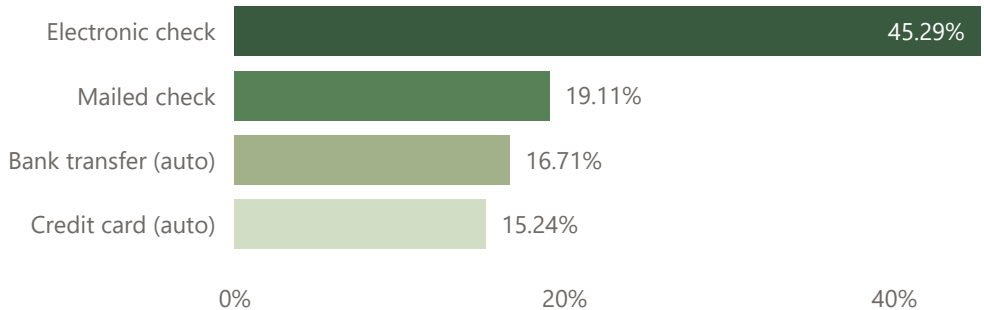

Service Type

All

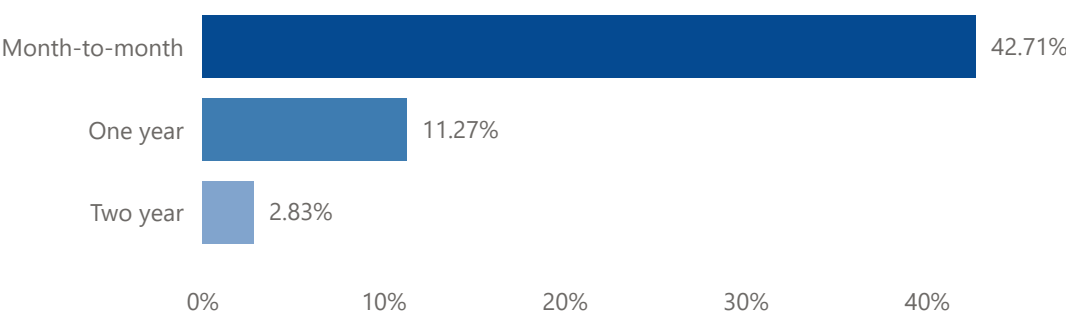

Tech Support

All

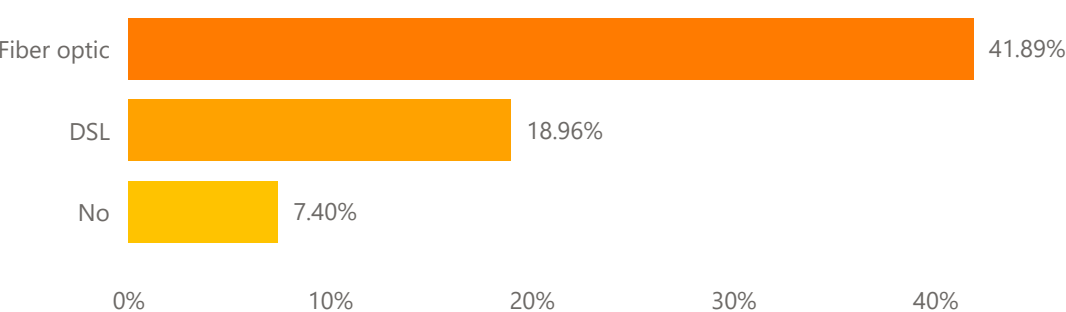

Churn Rate by Payment Method

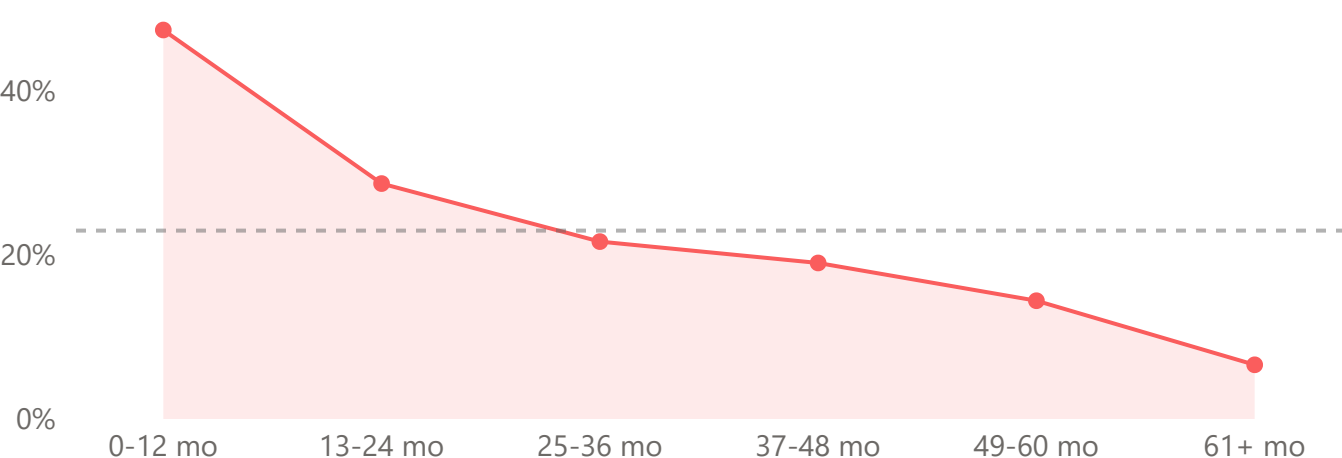

Churn Rate by Contract

Churn Rate by Internet Plan

Churn Rate by Tenure Group

Churn Rate By Tenure and Contract (Heatmap)

Internet Service	0-12 mo	13-24 mo	25-36 mo	37-48 mo	49-60 mo	61+ mo
DSL	40.0%	19.6%	8.5%	13.2%	7.0%	2.8%
Fiber optic	69.9%	48.8%	39.6%	33.1%	24.6%	12.4%
No	17.9%	3.8%	2.9%	0.6%	3.1%	0.4%

Key Insights:

- Month-to-month customers churn 15x more than two-year subscribers. Over 55% of the base is on month-to-month plans.
- Electronic check users churn at 45.3%. Auto-pay customers stay longer — lower friction means higher retention.
- First 12 Months customer churn more (nearly 50% of customers leave company within a year. With time churn rate decreases.
- Fiber optic churns at 41.89% — 2x DSL rate

Segment Level Analysis

HomeChurn RateSegments

Service Type

All

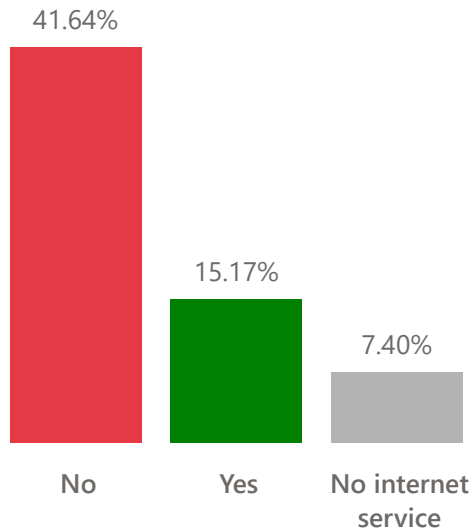

Tech Support

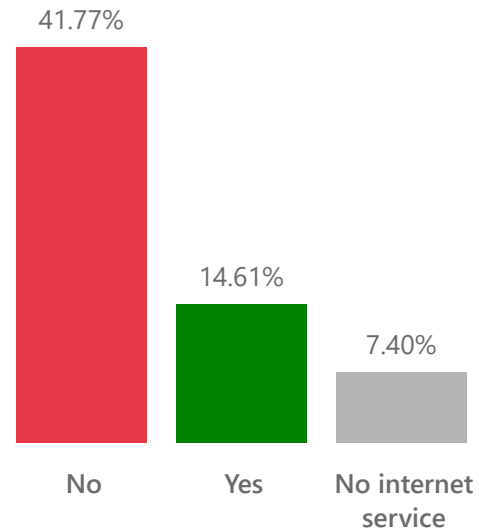

All

Churn Rate By Tech Support

Churn Rate By Online Security

Churn Rate By Senior Status

Churn Rate By Gender

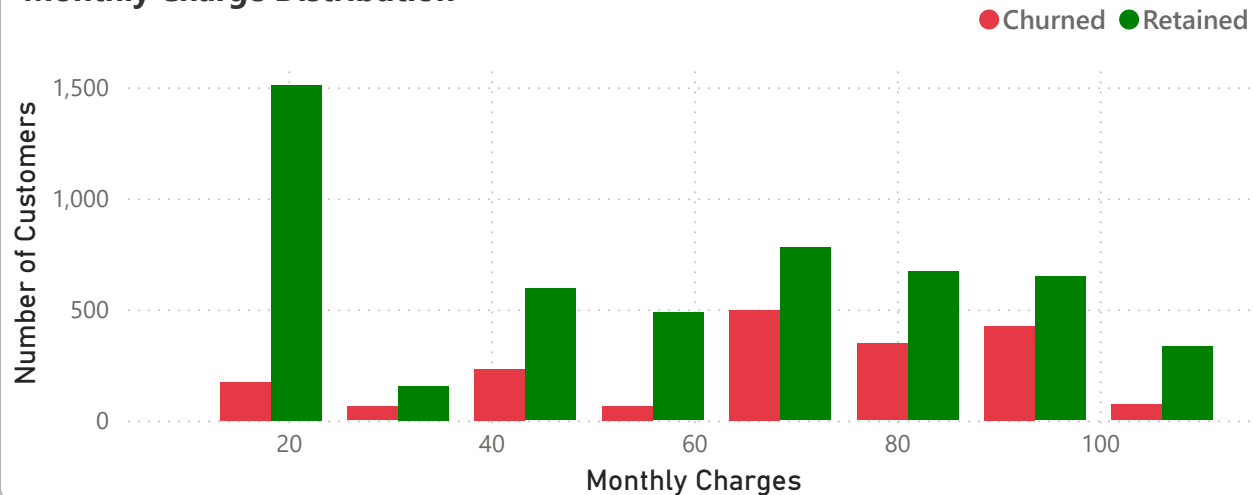

Churn Rate By Partner status

Churn Rate By Dependents

Monthly Charge Distribution

Key Insights:

- Customers without 'Tech Support' and 'Online Security' service have high churn rate (~42%).
- Senior Customers have high churn rate (~42%).
- Gender have not much effect on customer churning.
- Single customers and customers with no dependents have also high churn rate (~32%).
- Churned customers pay monthly high charges then retained customers.